

When comparing the US to other industrialized nations:

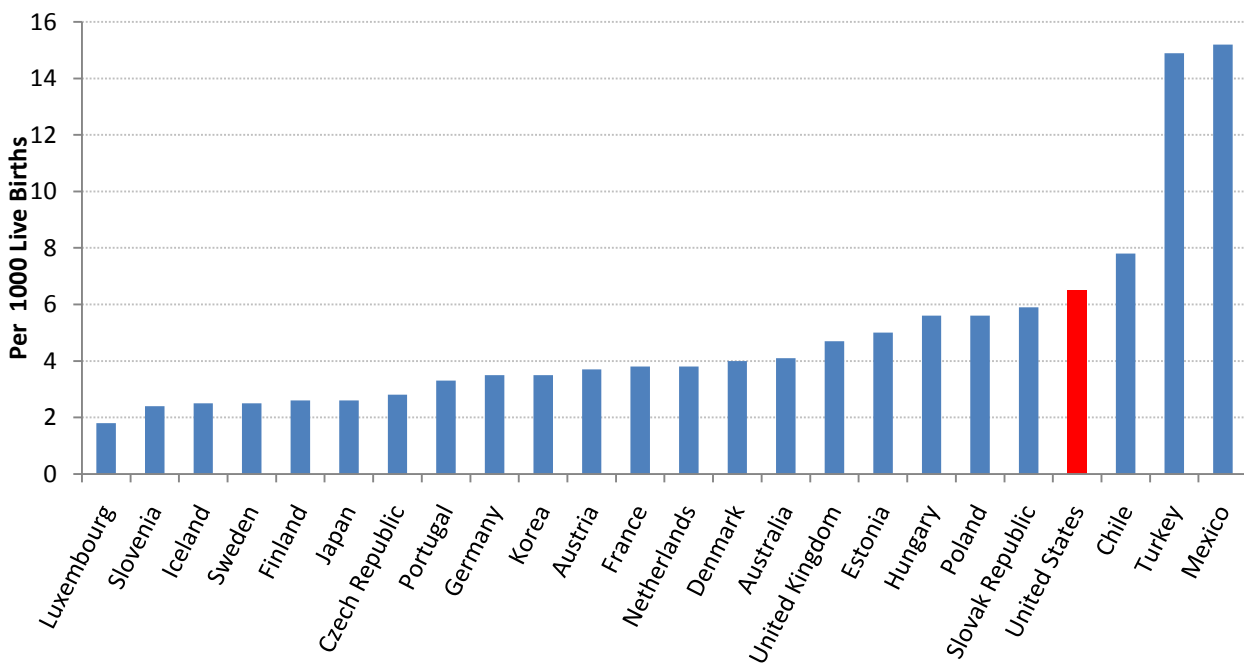

- the US is far from the best in health outcomes like life expectancy and infant mortality,
- Americans do not go to the doctor more frequently than other countries,
- yet our costs are twice as high as other countries.

2008 Life Expectancy

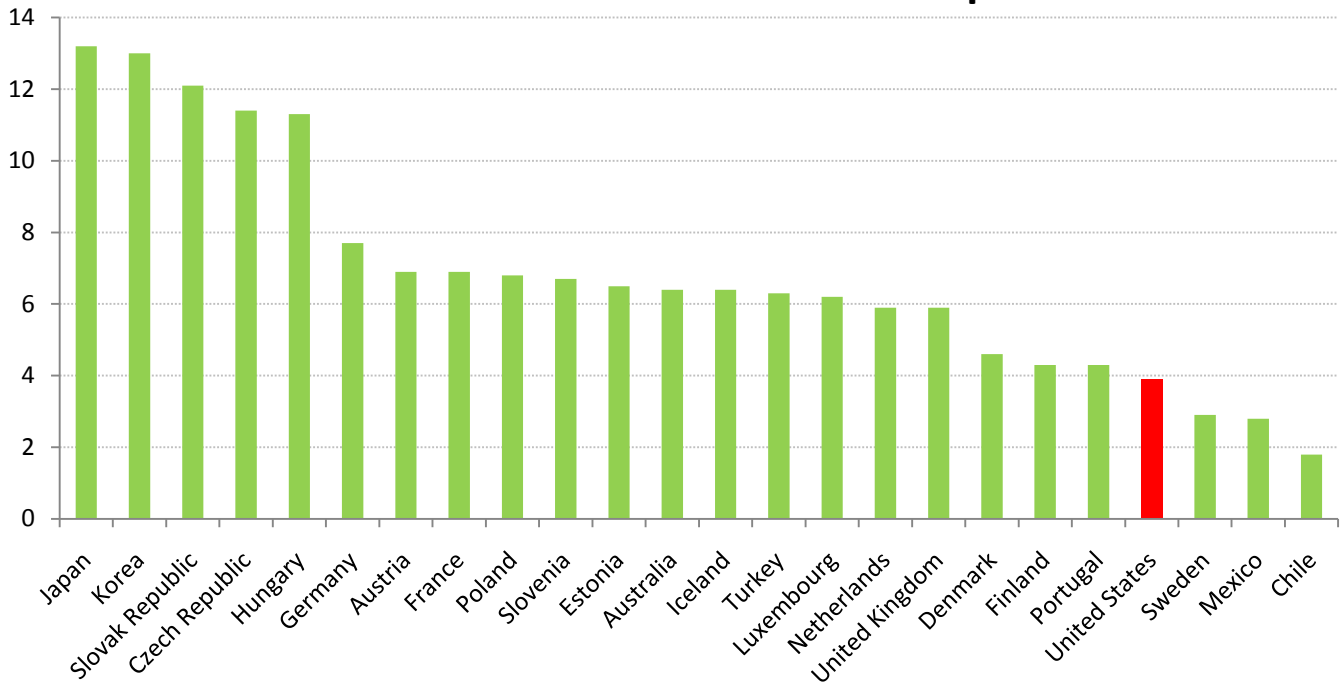

Source: OECD Health Data 2011

2008 Infant Mortality

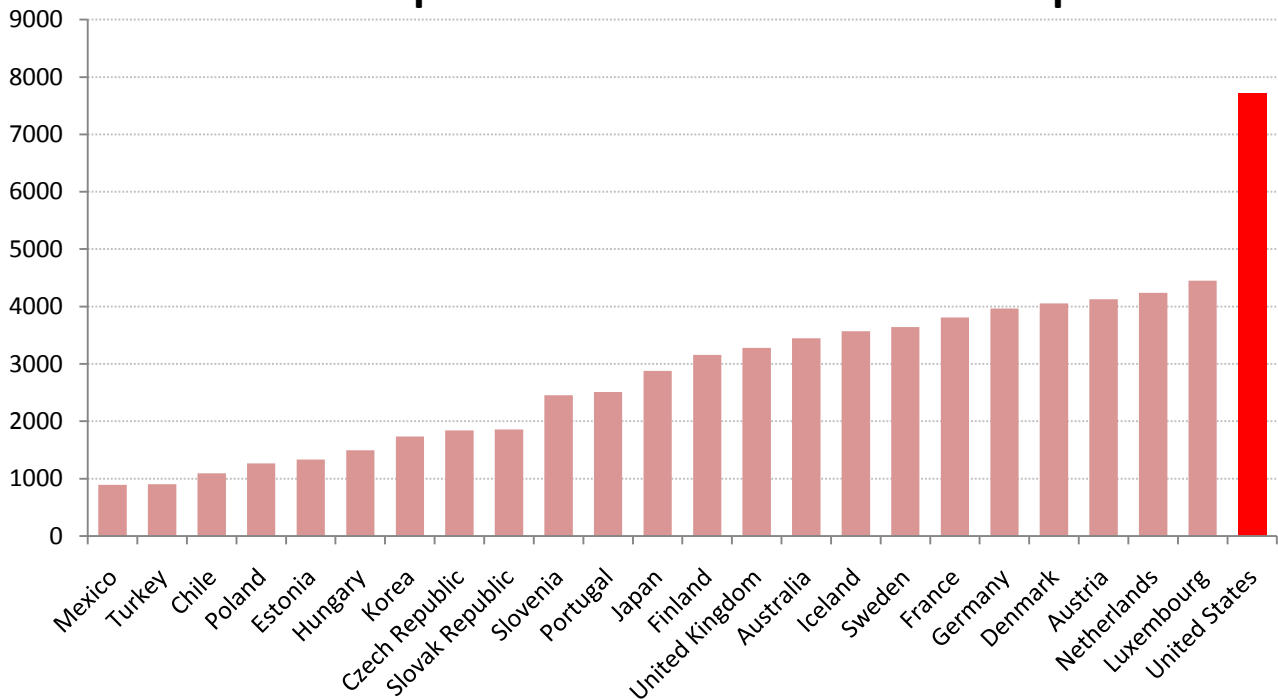

Source: OECD Health Data 2011

2008 Doctor Consultations Per Capita

Source: OECD Health Data 2011

2008 Total Expenditure on Health Care Per Capita

Source: OECD Health Data 2011